First-time author believes one billion people will read his new book

Jacksonville, Florida USA May 24, 2021— What Chicken Soup for the Soul® did for the soul—Some Perfect Tomorrow does for the heart. Craig R. Seaton’s new book releases on June 1, 2021.

True stories about real people, experiencing real loss, looking for hope, and somehow finding life...in death.

As you read these short, heartfelt chapters, you find yourself sharing your own grief with new friends. Friends who get what you’re going through. Just knowing this can help you make it through your day...or your moment.

“Craig Seaton wrote Some Perfect Tomorrow, a book of stories and advice to comfort people who have lost a loved one.”

-Brad Aronson, Author of The Wall Street Journal and USA Today bestseller,

“Some Perfect Tomorrow is a great gift to those struggling with loss. The sensitive stories offer hope, insight, and courage.

This book is a powerful testament of human resilience to bear even unbearable losses.”

- Kenneth J. Doka, PHD, Author of Grief Is a Journey and How We Die

Author, musician, and award-winning songwriter, Craig R. Seaton has helped thousands of families with the often-overwhelming details surrounding funeral, cremation, and burial arrangements. He is also founder of the onebillionpeople movement. A grass roots vision to distribute the book and its message of personal empathy to 1/7 of the world’s population.

Some Perfect Tomorrow will forever change the way you look at others—and the way you look at yourself.
